

ARZU YA IZ ON, M.D.

Born in Istanbul, Turkey, in 1967 and graduated from Hacettepe University Medical Faculty, Ankara, Turkey in 1990. She completed her residency training in Physical Rehabilitation and Medicine at Ege University Medical Faculty, Izmir, Turkey, in 1994. She had her fellowship training in Clinical Neurophysiology at the Department of Neurology of Ege University, Turkey in 1994 and at the Clinical Neurophysiology Department of Uppsala University, Sweden in 1996. She received the Associate Professor degree of PM&R in 2002 and Professor degree of PM&R in 2007. She is currently a Professor and Director of Clinical Neurophysiology Laboratory at the Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation of Ege University, Izmir, Turkey. Her research mainly focuses on clinical neurophysiology, post polio syndrome and neurological rehabilitation. She is an experienced clinician in the assessment and management of post-polio syndrome. She has completed many researches, and given lectures and courses regarding post- polio syndrome.